Notes for CHRISTIAN BERGTHOLDT, SR.: Mr. Christian Bergtholdt, Sr. was born February 20, 1807. He was the son of Jacob Bergtholdt, of Friedelsheim, near Durkheim, Germany. Kingdom of Bavaria.

Elizabeth Weber Bergtholdt was born June 6, 1806 at Kinderheim - near Grunstadt, Kingdom of Bavaria. The name of the state "Reinpaltz". She was the daughter of Henry Weber, of the same place. Christian and Elizabeth were married June 29, 1831 at her home in Kinderheim. They left Kinderheim on July 2, 1831 for a new home in America. They crossed the Atlantic in a sail boat. The trip consumed 33 days. They landed in New York where they took up passage on the Erie Canal to Buffalo, New York - arriving there August 26, 1831.

They brought with them the old family Bible, which was printed in 1827. It is still in the family. They brought an oil and grease pewter lamp, which is still in the family. There was also an old chest, much over 100 year old, which they brought across the ocean with them. Secreted in a little drawer in the chest was money amounting to $6,000.00. Christian's father had presented him with $2,000.00 and Elizabeth's father had presented her with $4,000.00, as they were afraid they might suffer hardship in this far off country, America. They never went back to the old country for a visit.

Elizabeth's father had a large flour mill. There were nine sisters and one brother in the family. One sister, with her husband and two children, came to America with Elizabeth and her husband.

Elizabeth lived to a nice old age of 92 years. Six of her sisters lived to be 90 or more. Her sister in America, Mrs. Kemera, was 93 and her husband 90 at the time of their death. They lived in their quiet way, were very prosperous and had much land. They had a family of eleven children, seven boys and four girls. Some died in infancy. David lived to be nearly 80 years old. The others all died younger.

7. DAVID BERGTHOLDT (CHRISTIAN, JAKOB, ABRAHAM) was born Aug 14, 1848 in Bomansville Erie County, NY, and died Jan 12, 1928 in Souix City, Iowa. He married BARBARA MARGARET LEININGER Feb 13, 1877 in Lancaster, NY. She was born Oct 18, 1857 in Lancaster, NY, and died Mar 15, 1950 in Pueblo, Colorado.

Notes for DAVID BERGTHOLDT: David Bergtholdt born August 14, 1848 in Bomansville Erie County, New York - married Barbara Margaret Leininger, February 13, 1877 by Rev. C. L. Knapp, Lutheran minister in Lancaster, N.Y.

Barbara born October 18, 1857 in Lancaster, Erie County, NY. David's mother lived with them on his farm. It was the farm his parents bought when they came to America from Germany. After his father's death, the division of the estate was made and the old homestead was given to David for his share.

They had four sons and one daughter. George, Henry, Bertha, Arthur and David. George, Henry and Bertha were born in New York. In 1886 they moved to Halstead, Kansas, where Arthur and David were born. David was in the grain business with his brother-in-law, Christian Bergtholdt.

After David left New York, the other brothers changed their name to Bergtold, as it easier to pronounce and spell. When David left NY, his mother stayed with her son, John for two years. She then came to Kansas to live with David.

In 1892, they moved to Cameron, Missouri on a farm. There is where David's mother fell and broke her right hip and left shoulder blade. She lay on her back from May 5 until December 12, when she died at the age of 92 years. David took her remains to New York and buried her beside his father who died at the age of 60 years.

In 1902 they moved to a farm six miles west of Bonner Springs, where they lived until 1911, when they moved to Cathage, South Dakota, on a large farm. They had to give up farming and moved to Sioux City, Iowa, where David was employed until his health failed. They went to Kansas City, Missouri and stayed with me for a while, then sent for their furniture and was keeping house for Arthur. At that time he was working for Montgomery Wards in the Post Office Department. Shortly after they moved, David died January 13, 1928. Buried in Sioux City, Iowa. Barbara stayed with Arthur until she died, March 15, 1950 in a hospital at Pueblo, Colorado, 35 miles west of Fowler, Colorado, where they lived. She was buried in Halstead, Kansas.
